Semi-Directive Coaching

What is Semi-directive?

When the coaching is sometimes directive and sometimes nondirective

Semi -Directive coaching in the Bible

- 1 Corinthians 11.1
Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Semi -Directive coaching in the Bible

Matthew 22:36-42

“Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’

Semi-Directive coaching in the Bible

John 14:12 Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

Why is Semi-directive coaching needed?

1. Often a client needs a basic amount of directing (learning and information) before being able to take a more active role in the progress towards some goal.

Why is Semi-directive coaching needed?

2. Often, in directive only coaching the client can lose motivation if the progress to a particular goal is too structured, too directive. Too much motivation is supplied by the coach.

Why is Semi-directive coaching needed?

3. Semi-directive coaching can be more responsive to the clients needs.
Directive when needed. Non-directive when needed.

Why is Semi-directive coaching needed?

4. Semi-directive coaching can speed up the coaching progress while still maintaining most of the benefits of non-directive coaching
