CHRISTIAN LEADERS ALLIANCE

Ordination Path for our Graduates

2 Timothy 2:1-3 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others. Join with me in suffering, like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

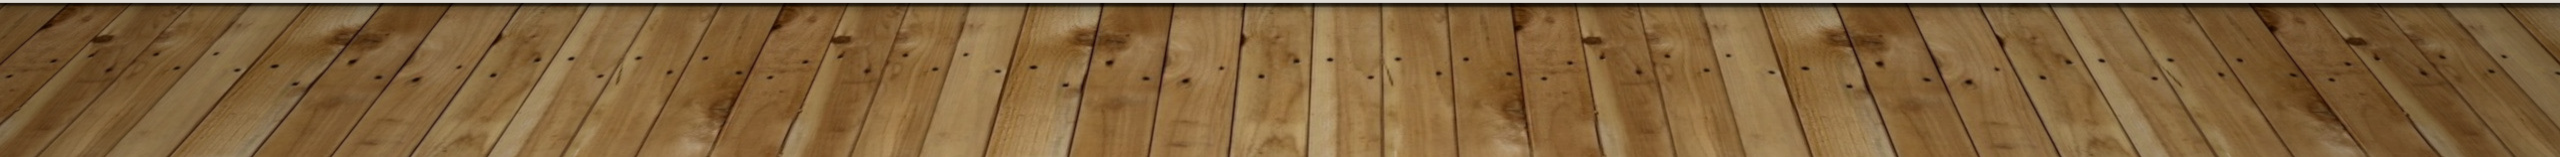

ACADEMIC PREPARATION

At Christian Leaders Alliance, Christians begin their ministry training by focusing on introductory-level minister roles, such as becoming a Wedding Officiant or a Christian Officiant.

This involves completing mini-courses, ministry skills and college-level courses for each primary and specialized minister role.

The primary roles include Licensed Wedding Officiant, Field Minister, Licensed Minister, Licensed Coaching Minister, Licensed Chaplain, and Ordained Minister. Each role builds on the previous one, leading to full ordination. Additionally, over thirty specializations are available, each requiring further ministry training.

THE WEDDING OFFICIANT STARTER ROLE

For those interested in exploring minister roles, it is recommended to start with the Wedding Officiant Skills Course, which entails approximately ten hours of study and provides a foundation for all minister roles.

2 Timothy 1:6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

ECUMINISTRY

Ordination's compatibility with various denominations and local credentialing situations.

I Corinthians 1:10,12-13 I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought... What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Cephas"; still another, "I follow Christ." Is Christ divided?
